INTRODUCTION

Believe it or not, there are ways to protect yourself in this modern world. We all feel vulnerable at times. To protect ourselves today, we need magical protection. Whether it is the negative energies of others or fear for your property, you are not helpless. A protection spell can empower you. You can build a field of energy that will keep destructive forces away. Magic is simply everywhere, and it can be used to do anything. Since the beginning of recorded history, mankind has manipulated his environment with spells and prayers. Read on to learn how to perform protection spells.

This book will reveal to you the spells and procedures you must cast to make yourself safe. You will cast the magic. You will light the candles, you will say the words. You will, step by step, bind the doorways, build the walls to shield your home and family. You will expel your enemies, you will turn away the gossip that attacks your reputation. You will be the one to make your entire world safe secure. Your world will become a place where no harm will be permitted. There will only be one thing that might stand in the way of you being able to protect yourself and those around you, and that one thing is BELIEF. If you believe that you will succeed, you will succeed. It is as simple as that.

All of the ingredients for the spells in this book are easily obtained. Everything required on the following pages is readily available at any Botanica, or store that trades in magical supplies.

Oils, Incense & Powders for Protection

A VERY IMPORTANT NOTE ON PROTECTION OILS

There are hundreds of different types of protection oils. There are also quite a number of ways in which they can be used. Anointing one's candles before lighting them is a powerful way to reinforce a spell with oils. You can ask for ideas on this at your local occult store. You can also simply use common sense. If you are performing a repellant spell, yes, repelling oil placed on your candle will help strengthen your spell.

But, there are many more creative ways to use oils. As you work with various castings, ideas will come to you as to how you might enhance a spell with oils. Let common sense be your guide, and it is practically impossible for you to go wrong.

Use your oil to infuse it's powers of protection in your life. Add a few drops to the rinse cycle of your laundry so that your clothes are permeated with it. Add some to the rinse water of your pillowcases to protect against bad dreams.

Anoint your windows, doors and valuables to protect against thieves by dipping your finger in the oil and drawing a shape of a pentagram. Anoint the walls of your home, your roof and sprinkle a few drops around your property to protect your house from the effects of natural disasters and negative energy.

Anoint your car, particularly the locks, steering wheel, or place a few drops of oil into the bucket of water when washing it. Dribble a few drops on your tires for protection from blow outs and accidents.

Dab some on yourself or your loved ones, or add a few drops to your bath water, to protect against psychic attacks, negative energy and accidents.

Always pair magic with common sense. No protection oil in the world is powerful enough to help you if you step in the path of a speeding truck. Magic offers a spiritual energy boost, it does not make you invulnerable.

RITUAL HERBAL BATHS

For many of us, losing control of our daily lives is our biggest problem. This is, of course, a minor casting, but one that will greatly assist most people in getting a handle on the small parts of their lives which they find slipping away from them.

When we become overwhelmed, by concerns at work, our love lives, our children or our children's lives, running our homes, dealing with neighbors, sick pets, et cetera, everything seems as if it is too large a problem to deal with. Suddenly small, insignificant concerns become major obstacles we can see no way around. When this happens, it is time to rejuvenate the protective energies of your aura with a cleansing ritual.

Baths fell out of use as science brought the world the shower. But ritual baths are an ancient part of the mystic arts with many uses in our everyday lives. Showers have their uses—indeed, any immersion in fresh water will revitalize anyone, but nothing relieves fatigue and banishes tensions from the human spirit like a bath.

There are many different bath products (all easy to obtain) that can be used for all sorts of magic—the list goes on and on. Bath magic is ancient—adding magical ingredients to your bath water is as old as time.

There are three main ways to create herbal baths. The first, easiest, and most powerful and direct way are to simply throw the correct amounts of specified herbs into the bathtub while it is filling with water. Unless your herbs are powdered, however, this method can cause problems with modern plumbing.

The second method is to tie the herbs in a white handkerchief or other piece of white cloth thin enough to allow water to flow through it. The bag can either be tied to the faucet where the water filling the tub can flow through it, or tossed into the tub (to act much like a tea bag).

The last method is to make an actual tea from the herbs. Simmering (do not boil them) the herbs until they give off a fair amount of steam, the resulting tea should be covered, and then allowed to cool. Then it is simply stored and used when needed. Simply place the herb tea in to the bath while the tub is filling up, and then perform your ritual.

Whichever method you use—combining your own herbs or using professionally prepared recipes—is strictly up to you. The entire idea behind ritual baths is for the spell-caster to be comfortable. Once you have your bath prepared, simply get in and begin to concentrate on the matter at hand. Whatever ritual you are attempting, however, it is important to remember that your mental state must be a positive one.

Use whatever candles and/or incense you find appropriate. How much control, how strong a set of controls, you might want to add in this type of ritual is entirely up to you. After everything is ready, relax in your bath from five to ten minutes.

Once you emerge, dry yourself thoroughly. Brush your hair straight back from your forehead. Then, anoint yourself with the control or protection oil of your choice. The oil should be placed first on your feet, second on your wrists, and then lastly on the back of your neck. Wash all of the excess oil on your hands away. At this point your control over all of the mundane facets of your life should be greatly increased.

HOLY HERBS BATH

This is made up usually of seven or nine sacred herbs according to the preparer's preference. it usually contains lavender, rosemary, verbena, thyme, rosebuds, and whatever else the sorcerer deems applicable. To use, take a handful of the herb mixture and place in a thin muslin bag, or tie them in cheesecloth. Place the bag in the tub, letting the hot water run over it. The bag can be used over and over again until all the fragrance is gone. An alternate method is to boil the herbs in about a quart of water, then strain, and use about half a cup of the water in each bath These Holy Herb Baths are credited with strong protective and healing qualities.

Magical Rituals for Protection

CLEANSING RITUAL

Cleansing rituals are performed to clear negative energies after adverse or unfortunate events. This may include anything from a bitter argument to a tragic event such as a death. The force of these episodes impact the environment in which they occur. Negative energy creates a dismal atmosphere, adversely effecting anyone who enters the space. A cleansing ritual is performed for healing. Performing a cleansing ritual replaces grievous energy with beneficial or positive energy. With this in mind, it is a good idea to perform a cleansing ritual when moving to a new home or place of business.

When preparing a space for purification, make sure that all windows and doors are opened. Start with the room furthest from the front door. Take a sage bundle and holding it over a fire proof bowl, light it. Sage is known to banish negative energy. Walk clockwise around to each room in the entire home while waving the sage bundle in a clockwise circular manner. Allow each room to fill with the sage smoke. Sweep the smoke into corners, closets and cabinets. As you cleanse each room repeat the following incantation out loud:

With Fire and Air, I consecrate and protect this space.

Visualize the negative energy moving out of the space, clearing the room for positive and protective vibration to enter. You might choose to follow the Sage smudging ritual with a ceremony using Pine. Pine is known to bring desirable positive energy.

Next, sprinkle a mixture of protection incense such as dragons blood, sandalwood, frankincense, myrrh, and sea salt around the entire inside of the perimeter of house against the walls, inside the closets, and especially across your doorways. Next, use holy blessed water sprinkle the holy water on your finger and put a cross or a pentagram on each window and doorway. If you do not have holy water, use salt water with spring water and sea salt. Do this in every room and at every window and door, as well as every other possible opening to the house such as outlets or phone jacks, draw a cross or an invoking pentagram using your finger dipped in the salt water. You can use holy water if you like. Draw the pentagram at every possible opening while saying:

With Water and Earth, I consecrate and protect this space.

Repeat until the entire house has been consecrated in this manner. Repeat monthly, preferably at the full moon, or as needed.

PURIFICATION SPELL TO CLEANSE YOURSELF

You will need, plain bath salts or epsom salts, lavender herb and Sea salt.

Mix the ingredients together to make a herbal bath salts mix. Hold your hands over the bath salts and visualise purifying energy from the heavens flowing into the mixture.

Run a bath, and add 1 teaspoon of Bath Salts to the bath when full. Step into the bath and try to relax your body and mind. Visualise the purification properties of the salt and Lavender flowing into your body, cleansing you, and say:

"Lavender and Salt of Sea, mixed in Bath Salt, purify me."
"As this water washes over me no negativity shall there be."

Visualise white purifying light surrounding you, and cleaning you.

Repeat this each night, three nights in a row.

Once you are done each night, don't blow the candles out, snuff them out instead. After the third and final night, bury the wax remaining from the candles.

TO ANNUL AN EVIL SPELL

The most rapid and effective way to annul an evil spell and send it back to its sender is to use the traditional "revocation" of Saint Michael.

A new glass is filled with water within an inch of the top. The glass is covered with a new saucer and turned upside down, ensuring that the water is not spilled and remains inside the glass, held by the saucer.

Approximately an inch is cut from the top and the bottom of a white candle, allowing some of the wick to extend from the bottom part.

The candle is then set upside down on the glass bottom and lit in the name of Saint Michael.

The powerful archangel is then invoked and asked that in the same way the glass and the candle were reversed, so he will reverse the course of the enemy's spell and return it to its sender.

The ritual is repeated during nine consecutive Tuesdays.

DEFEAT AN ENEMY'S EVIL

SPELL TO MAKE SOMEONE MOVE AWAY

Before you start this ritual, on a Saturday, as the Moon wanes, draw the Banishing Seal on parchment paper. Consecrate it to the purpose of causing one to move away from the premises where it shall lay. Pass it 15 times through the smoke of Patchouli Incense and keep it secluded until it is used in the ritual below.

Begin this spell on a Saturday, at midnight, under a waning Moon.

1. Carefully slip up to the front door of the person you would like to move away. Sprinkle some of the Go Away Powder across the threshold and anoint the door knob with the Patchouli oil as you say:

Go in peace, without a sound. Silence, then, must spread around.
In peace, away, from here be drawn, fly, depart, be gone, be gone!

2. Hide or bury the Banishing Seal in a secret place near the door (in a plant, under a mat, in a flower bed or under a rock etc.).

3. Return home and anoint the Black candle with Patchouli oil, sit beside the candle and meditate for 20 minutes. Think about the person vacating the premises and feel the emptiness of the place.

4. Imagine youself inside the empty house or dwelling with bare rooms and walls. Actually feel the chill of vacancy. As you do this, chant over and over:

Void of life and void of cheer, I see this place with an empty leer.
People gone and furnishings out this place be cold without a doubt. Chill of a grave and silence of a tomb this place is deserted like a barren womb...where cold spirits wander from room to room!

5. Repeat the meditation each night until the candle is reduced to a small stub. Roll the candle into a ball of wax and with a sharp object, write the sign of Saturn on one side and the symbols of the Waning Moon and Mercury on the other.

6. Once again you should slip up to the door of the persons' house and leave the wax charm on the doorstep. You should not be seen doing this. Slip away into the night and do not look back.

Also draw out the spear and stop those who pursue me. Say to my soul, "I am your salvation." Let those be put to shame and brought to dishonor who seek after my life; let those be turned back and brought to confusion who plot my hurt. Let them be like chaff before the wind, and let the angel of the Lord chase them. Let their way be dark and slippery, and let the angel of the Lord pursue them. In Jesus Christ, Amen"

"Heavenly Father, I ask that you would unmask the enemy's deception over these people who are rebelling against you in doing this evil. Prayer For

PROTECTION FROM ENEMIES AND EVIL

Dear God, lover of my soul,
Thou art the greatest Friend and Protector anyone could ever have.
That is why I do feel I can open my heart to Thee now for Thou must know how full of pain and tears it is! .

I feel so lonely and misunderstood, dear Father.
People are so mean and unjust to me!
Thou knowest how quick some of them are to find fault with me and blame me.
Yes, Thou knowest who they are and how hard and bare this makes my life !

I don't want to do them any wrong, Father, but so often I see no reason for the way they treat me.
0 I do try to be kind and helpful to others,
but there are some who simply do not want to understand or appreciate.

Please help me understand this, dear Lord.
If I do anything which makes them act that way, please help me to be different.
But if the fault is not mine, Father, please help me to forgive them, for truly they know not what they do!

And should I be afraid again, dear Father, remind me that if Thou be with me who can be against me?
I know Thou art with me and so I should not fear anyone.
This makes me stronger, dear Lord
so strong that I really feel I can go forth from here and not be afraid any, any more!

Amen

Prayer For

GOD'S GUIDANCE, HELP AND PROTECTION

My loving Father, Ruler of the World and the Universe to the farthest star,
the greatest and the humblest rest their lives in Thy hands.
And how glad am I that Thou dost listen even to me!

For my life has had so many trials and troubles, dear Father.
I do things I do not want to do.
And things I know I should do, dear Father, I do not do.
Yes, Thou knowest how much I need Thy guidance with the many, many problems I have to meet.

What I have done, dear Father, I bring to Thee for Thy blessing today,
for no work is finished without it.
And when tomorrow comes, dear Father,
show me again what Thou wantest me to do.
Please, loving Father, help me and guide me, for I need it so!

Yes, Father, help me understand that what has happened to me here lately is still Thy will for me.
Help me where I am weak and strengthen me where I am strong.
Yes, Father, help me always to trust myself to Thee to let Thee do the guiding and myself the loving.

Speak to me now, dear Father, in the silence and the peace that has come to me from Thee.
For I listen humbly and will obey - with trust and faith and hope and courage.

Amen.

TO BANISH FEAR AND FOR PROTECTION FROM EVIL

As surely as I trust in God, I know Thy will protect me from all harm. With Thy presence as my shield, no one can injure me. Cause even the dark forces to work for good, and bring me quickly from my distress. I call upon Thee from my heart, and wait patiently and confidently for Thy strength to fortify me.

TO CONTROL THOSE WHO HARASS US

Teach me to be anxious for nothing, and to accept thy wisdom which is greater than mine. Keep me safe in my person and in my home. Grant me the vision to know when to confront those who are against me, and when to withdraw from their company. Let me not permit bitterness in my heart against mine enemies, but help us to love one another.
